PROPOSALS will be received at the Post Office Department until the 1st day of June next, to be decided on the 3d, for carrying the mail of the United States until the 30th June, 1840, on the following routes, viz:

No 1371. From Philadelphia, Pa. to Baltimore, Md. 93 miles, twice daily and back, on steamboats and railroads, or on railroads only, as follows, viz:

Leave Philadelphia at 6 o'clock a m, and arrive at Baltimore at 1 p m.

Leave Baltimore at 6 a m, and arrive at Philadelphia at 1 p m.

Leave Philadelphia at 2 p m, and arrive at Baltimore at 9 p m.

Leave Baltimore at 2 p m, and arrive at Philadelphia at 9 p m.

No 1997. From Baltimore, Md. to Portsmouth and Norfolk, Va. about 185 miles, daily and back in steamboats, as follows, viz:

Leave Baltimore at 3 p m, and arrive at Portsmouth at 9 a m next day

Leave Portsmouth at 11 a m, and arrive at Baltimore at 5 a m next day.

The boat from Baltimore will receive the southern mail at Portsmouth, and carry it over to Norfolk, and the boat for return trip will carry the southern mail from Norfolk to Portsmouth.

Or leave Baltimore at 11 p m, and arrive at Portsmouth by 5 p m next day, returning as above.

No 2104. Portsmouth, Va. to Halifax, N. C. 74 miles and back daily on railroad, as follows, viz:

Leave Portsmouth at 11 a m, and arrive at Halifax by 7 p m.

Leave Halifax at 2 a m, and arrive at Portsmouth by 10 a m same day.

The times of arrival and departure to be changed, if it become necessary to form a close connection with the steamboat line through the Chesapeake bay.

No 1372. Baltimore to Washington, D. C. twice daily on railroad as follows, viz:

Leave Baltimore at 10 p m, and arrive in Washington at 1 a m, next day.

Leave Washington at 2 a m, and arrive at Baltimore by 5 a m.

Leave Baltimore at 2 p m, and arrive in Washington by 5 p m.

Leave Washington at 10 a m, and arrive in Baltimore by 1 p m.

No 1373. Baltimore to Frederick, Md. 64 miles, by railroad daily and back, as follows, viz:

Leave Baltimore at 10 p m, and arrive at Frederick by 4 a m next day.

Leave Frederick at 10 p m, and arrive at Baltimore by 4 a m next day.

Proposals will be considered for running this route as follows, viz:

Leave Baltimore at 2 p m, and arrive at Frederick by 8 p m.

Leave Frederick at 6 a m, and arrive at Baltimore by 12 m.

No 1373. Baltimore to Frederick, Md. by turnpike, 45 miles.

No 1391. Frederick to Cumberland, Md. 91 miles.

No 1418. Cumberland to Wheeling, Va. 131 miles.

No 1465. Wheeling to Columbus, O. 132 miles.

Mail to be carried daily and back at the rate of six miles an hour, running time, in vehicles constructed according to a model, to be prescribed by the Department, in which the mails shall be secured under lock and key, with the privilege of carrying three passengers only, in seats made for the purpose on the outside.

Proposals will be considered for running these routes at any greater number of miles per hour, running time, not exceeding ten.

The time allowed by the Department for opening the mails at all the Post Offices will be fixed and added to the running time on each route.

The time of leaving will be fixed and varied according to the interests of the Department, but not so as to increase the speed.

No 1451. Columbus to Cincinnati, O. 115 miles, daily and back, at a speed of five miles an hour, running time, and in every other respect like the foregoing four routes.

Proposals will be considered for running this route at a greater speed, or at a greater during the summer, and the same or less during the winter.

No 1997 extended, Philadelphia, Pa. to Norfolk, Va. about 270 miles and back daily; to be run, during the season of steamboat navigation, down the Delaware river, by the Newcastle and Frenchtown railroads, or by the Delaware and Chesapeake canals, and by the Chesapeake bay direct to Portsmouth and Norfolk, Va. in steamboats and railroad cars, or canal boats, as follows, viz:

Leave Philadelphia at 2 p m, and arrive at Portsmouth by 5 p m next day.

Leave Portsmouth at 10 a m, and arrive at Philadelphia by 1 pm next day.

Or, leave Philadelphia at 6 a m, and arrive at Portsmouth and Norfolk by 9 am next day; returning as above.

This service to commence at Baltimore when the navigation of the Delaware river is obstructed by ice: the time of departure &c. to be fixed by the Department.

Proposals are also invited for a steamboat mail once or twice daily, to connect this line with Baltimore during the season of navigation, at any convenient point.

All intermediate post offices on the several lines advertised, must be supplied with the mail according to the directions of the Department.

On the railroad and steamboat lines, the throughgoing mails will be carried in fire-proof cars or boxes, secured from wet and mounted on wheels, or to be mounted upon landing, which must be taken to and from the post offices at the beginnings and ends of routes. The postmasters, after putting in their mails, will carefully lock the car or box, in which condition it will remain during its transportation from one end of the route to the other. Mail bags will be furnished for the supply of intermediate offices.

On all the routes advertised, an agent or armed guard, furnished by the department to deliver, look after, and protect the mails, will be carried without charge, if required by the department.

The service will commence on the first day of July next, or at any time thereafter which may be fixed on by mutual agreement.

Each route is to be bid for separately. The route, the sum, and the residence of the bidder, should be distinctly stated in the bid. The sum should be stated by the year

No proposal will be considered unless it be accompanied by a guaranty, signed by one or more responsible persons in the following form, viz:

"The undersigned, guarantee that if his bid for carrying the mail from to be accepted by the Postmaster General, shall enter into an obligation, prior to the first day of September next, with good and sufficient sureties, to perform the service proposed. Dated 1837."

This should be accompanied by the certificate of a postmaster, or other satisfactory testimony, that the guarantors are men of property, and able to make good their guaranty.

The Postmaster General reserves the right of changing the schedule hours; of deducting pay for mail failures; of imposing reasonable fines for delinquencies, and annulling the contract for repeated failures, or gross misconduct.

The proposals should be sent to the Department sealed, endorsed "Mail Proposals, under advertisement of 10th April, 1837, and addressed to the First Assistant Postmaster General.

AMOS KENDALL.

DR. GRAHAM'S VEGETABLE PILLS.

IN these Pills the proprietor offers to the public the result of a long and an unwearied investigation of the Laws of the Human System. He trusts that prejudice will not raise its mighty and powerful arm against this recent and valuable discovery; and that the cry of Quackery! Quackery! will not mislead the invalid from the short and speedy road to health.

It is a common-place truth, admitted by all, but alas! neglected by nearly all, that most of the diseases to which the human frame is subject, are produced by excesses and irregularities of living; thereby infringing the laws which govern the several functions of the body. These laws are simple and plain, the neglect of which is as sure to bring a mournful train of evils as the neglect of the moral laws of our nature.

The Stomach has been justly styled "the storehouse of disease." How often are parents, the natural guardians of their children's health and welfare, the immediate agents in the ruin of both. Misguided affection is sometimes the cause of this fatal error. I allude to the too common practice of gratifying children in their calls for any and every kind of food, whatever may be the constitution of the former or the nature of the latter. Its cries are choked, its stomach is stuffed with food, and that not always of the most appropriate quality. Its passively swallowing whatever is put into its mouth is mistaken for a real fondness for the same.

But among the Causes of Diseases, and a tendency thereto in the system, is the too frequent indulgence of Animal Food, in preference to the productions of the Vegetable Kingdom. Most persons act as though the strength, vigor and health of the body rose in proportion to the load of Animal food they are capable of forcing daily into their stomach. Nature has designed that mankind should subsist upon a Vegetable Diet. This idea is by no means a new one. Newton, Rosseau and Gassendi have maintained it. In these enlightened times, the philosopher often sinks into the man, than the man into the philosopher. Fashion and habit must be the ruling principle of life; and therefore nature's designs are frustrated, and foul disease, Prothens like, infests the world in a thousand different forms.

We have every reason for believing that the fruits of the earth constituted originally the only food of man. The majority of mankind at the present day eat only of vegetables. We know that the Hindoo lives entirely upon rice and water. In Ireland the greatest proportion of the people subsist on potatoes, with a small addition of oaten meal. And where shall we find a more robust and hardy nation than the Irish. The same is true with regard to Scotland and Italy, and the parts of the South of Europe. But it is not necessary to enter further into this deeply interesting question. It is sufficient to say that I have discovered a medicine that will counteract the evil and restore lost health. After great hesitation I have been persuaded by the urgent solicitations of my numerous friends, to offer them to the public. I should not have yielded at all, had not a conviction of their vast utility, and a desire to benefit my fellow creatures, furnished additional motives.

Numerous certificates of cures have been offered, but the Proprietor trusts to the merits of the medicine rather than the recommendations of others. The following diseases are cured by them, and health perfectly restored; Indigestion, or Dyspepsia; Spring complaints, as Weakness, Loss of Appetite, Sleepiness, Pain in limbs and Sides, Diarrhœa, Dropsy, Dysentery, Erysipelas, Cholic, Heartburn, Hysteria, and other diseases incident to females, Headache, Jaundice, King's Evil, Rheumatism, Gout, Virtigo, or Dizziness, all Humors, &c.

DYSPEPSIA &C.

DOCT. WEST'S INDIAN PURIFYING PANACEA. or the Vegetable LIFE BITTERS, which yield all their virtues to wine, or Boiling Water

In the preface to the 2d edition of Doct Thatcher's Dispensatory, are the following remarks: "Every thing invites and constrains to explore the recesses of the mountains and fields, for the earth is replete with riches"—"Let the cultivating hand of science be extended to bring into view the hidden treasures which have so long remained unenjoyed" "If the native Indians possessed a knowledge of practical botany to fulfil their medical purposes, what may not be expected when these advantages are joined with civilization and modern improvements."

Shawmut, the father of the present Grand Sachem of the Pawnee tribe of Indians, like the most of his brethren, was of idle and indolent habits, as to work—but possessed of peculiar industry, curiosity and taste in looking into the nature and use of medicinal plants—many years were passed in this way, until he at length declared to his kindred that he was possessed of a vegetable composition, which would cure almost any complaint which had not been of too long standing, and for more than twenty years his medicine was used with invaiable success among all the tribes, from the Lakes to the Pacific Ocean.

The proprietor of this Panacea was one of the travellers in the late expedition to the Rocky Mountains, and hearing so much of the great cures performed by the Vegetable Life Bitters, that he, at great expense, purchased of the present Sachem, the receipt for their preparation, and for more than two years they have been tried in New York and Albany, with every benefit which had been so sanguinely expected.

☞ Those who are unacquainted with the Indian character, will be surprised to learn that the following articles were first discovered by native sons of the soil, viz: Indian Arrow Root (Maranda Arunda,) Indian Tobacco (Lobelia,) Indian Pink, or Pink Root (Spigelia,) Indian Rubber, Indian Wheat, or Corn, Indian Leaf, or Laurus Cassia, and numerous other articles, now in general use throughout the world. These facts are alluded to, simply to prove that the Indians are not that stupid race so generally supposed, but on the contrary that they are a sagacious and discerning people.

Disorders cured by the Indian Panacea.—Jaundice and Drowsiness, so common in the Spring and Summer months—also, Dysentery, Dyspepsia, Costiveness, Cholic, Fever and Ague, Head-Ache, Flatulence, Rheumatism, and all impurities of the blood. The efficacy of this Panacea, in purifying the blood from all gross humors, from blotches, pimples, &c. &c., from all parts of the body, is really astonishing, except to those who have witnessed it. The wonderful cures performed also in weakness of the limbs, general debility, want of appetite, billious and liver complaints, are truly great and surprising.

This Panacea has also been found extremely beneficial in Dropsy, Gravel, Piles, inward Weakness, Depression of Spirits, Worms, Female Obstructions, Bad Breath, &c. &c.

☞ Prepared by G. West, Chittenengo, State of N. Y., and sold by his agents—J. Wadsworth, No 19 Division st. N. York; W. Bailey, 79 Market st. Albany; L. M. Bradford, Druggist, Washington st. CONFIDENCE AND CREDIT.

The day was dark, the markets dull,
The 'Change was thin, Gazettes were full,
And half the town was breaking;
The counter-sign of cash was "stop!"
Bankers and Bankrupts shut up shop,
And honest hearts were aching.

When near the Bench, my fancy spied
A faded form, with hasty stride,
Beneath grief's burthen stooping—
Her name was Credit, and she said,
Her father, Trade, was lately dead,
Her mother, Commerce, drooping.

The smile that she was wont to wear
Was withered by the hand of care,
Her eyes had lost their lustre;
Her character was gone, she said,
For basely she had been betrayed,
And nobody would trust her,

That honest Industry had tried
To gain fair Credit for his bride,
And found the lady willing;
But ah! a Fortune-hunter came,
And Speculation was his name,
A Rake, not worth a shilling.

The villain was on mischief bent,
He gained both Dad and Mam's consent,
And then poor Credit smarted;
He filched her fortune and her fame—
He fixed a blot upon her name,

When thus poor Credit seemed to sigh
Her cousin Confidence came by,
(Methinks he must be clever;)
For when he whispered in her ear,
She checked the sigh, she dried the tear,
And smiled as sweet as ever.

BOSTON MORNING POST.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE

Appointed at the meeting of Merchants, at Masonic Hall, New York, on the 25th of April, 1837.

This Committee having been convened upon the day after its appointment, we ascertained that a large majority of our number could not leave the city, without serious inconvenience and loss, and we therefore appointed a sub-committee of fifteen to repair to Washington, and present to the Executive, the remonstrance of the Merchants of New York. In the interval between the nomination of this Committee, and the day fixed for its departure, several of its members found that the increasing difficulties by which they were surrounded, made their presence at home indispensable; and accordingly only nine were able to enter upon the duty with which we were originally charged.

These gentlemen reached the Capitol on the evening of the 2d inst. and on the following morning their Chairman addressed the following note to the President:—

To MARTIN VAN BUREN,
President of the United States—

SIR—I have the honor to inform you that a Committee has been appointed by a meeting of the Merchants of New York, for the purpose of addressing the Executive upon the present distressed condition of that city.

In behalf of that Committee, I respectfully request an audience at as early an hour as your convenience will permit.

With profound respect your most ob't serv't,
ISAAC S. HONE, Chairman.

GADSBY'S HOTEL, May 3, 9 o'clock.

The reply to this note was as follows:—

WASHINGTON, May 3, 1837.

SIR—I have received your letter, informing me that a committee had been appointed by a meeting of the merchants of New York, for the purpose of addressing me upon the present distressed condition of that city, and requesting an audience at as early an hour as my convenience will admit.

I will receive the committee at two o'clock to-day, and will, at that, or any other time more agreeable to them, be pleased to receive any communication which they may desire to present to me. To avoid the misapprehensions to which oral communications are liable, and also to avoid the errors which, with the best intentions, are so apt to occur, on both sides, in giving accounts of such interviews, I think it most proper that the representation of the committee be made in writing. In that form, I shall be happy to recieve it, and when so received, it shall be respectfully considered, and answered in the same manner.

I am, sir, very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
M. VAN BUREN.

To ISAAC S. HONE, Esq., Chairman, &c.

To which this answer was given:

WASHINGTON CITY, May 3, 1837.

To Martin Van Buren, President of the United States—

SIR—I have the honor to inform you, that the committee will wait upon you at 2 o'clock, and present a written communication, in accordance with the suggestion expressed in your note.

I have the honor to be, your most obedient servant,
ISAAC S. HONE, Chairman.

At the appointed time, they presented themselves, were courteously received by the President, with whom they found the Secretaries of the State and Treasury Departments, and read the following address:

To MARTIN VAN BUREN.
President of the United States:

SIR—We have the honor of informing you that a very numerous meeting of the merchants of New York was held on the 25th of April, for the purpose of considering the present distressed condition of the city, and deliberating upon the means of relief. It was called by more than three hundred firms, and was attended by a large proportion of those merchants who are connected with the internal trade of the country, and who have an especial and direct interest in the state of Domestic Exchanges.

A Committee was appointed to repair to Washington, and remonstrate with the Executive against the continuance of the Specie Circular, and to urge its immediate repeal; also to ask that instructions may be given to prevent the commencing of suits in any of the collection districts, upon unpaid Bonds, until after the first day of January next; and to urge upon the Executive the propriety of calling an extra session of Congress at as early a day as possible.

In obedience, Sir, to these instructions, we present ourselves before you, and ask your deep and solemn attention to the unhappy condition of that city which has hitherto been the promoter and the index of our national prosperity, and whose fall will include the ruin of thousands in every region of our territory. We do not tell a fictitious tale of woe; we have no selfish or partizan views to sustain, when we assure you that the noble city which we represent, lies prostrate in despair, its credit blighted, its industry paralized, and without a hope beaming through the darkness of the future, unless the government of our country can be induced to relinquish the measures to which we attribute our distress. We fully appreciate the respect which is due to our Chief Magistrate, and disclaim every intention inconsistent with that feeling; but we speak in behalf of a community which trembles upon the brink of ruin, which deems itself an adequate judge of all questions connected with the trade and currency of the country, and believes that the policy adopted by the recent administration, and sustained by the present, is founded in error, and threatens the destruction of every department of industry.

Our merchants, manufacturers and mechanics, have repeatedly predicted the fatal issue of that policy. "What was prophecy, has now become history;" and the reality far exceeds our most gloomy apprehensions. Under a deep impression of the propriety of confining our declarations within moderate limits, we affirm that the value of our real estate has, within the last six months, depreciated more than forty millions: that within the last two months, there have been more than two hundred and fifty failures of houses engaged in extensive business: that within the same period a decline of twenty millions of dollars has occurred in our local stocks, including those Railroad and Canal Incorporations, which though chartered in other States, depend chiefly upon New York for their sale; that the immense amount of merchandise in our ware-houses, has within the same period fallen in value at least thirty per cent.; that within a few weeks not less than twenty thousand individuals depending upon their daily labor for their daily bread, have been discharged by their employers because the means of retaining them were exhausted—and that a complete blight has fallen upon a community heretofore so active, enterprising and prosperous—the error of our rulers has produced a wider desolation than the pestilence which depopulated our streets, or the conflagration which laid them in ashes.

We believe that it is unjust to attribute these evils to any excessive development of mercantile enterprise, and that they really flow from that unwise system which aimed at the substitution of a metallic for a paper currency—the system which gave the first shock to the fabric of our commercial prosperity by removing the public deposites from the United States Bank, which weakened every part of the edifice by the destruction of that useful and efficient institution, and now threatens to crumble it into a mass of ruins under the operations of the Specie Circular, which withdrew the gold and silver of the country from the channels in which it could be profitably employed. We assert that the experiment has had a fair, a liberal trial, and that disappointment and mischief are visible in all its results—that the promise of a regulated currency and equalized exchanges has been broken, the currency totally disordered, and internal exchanges almost entirely discontinued. We therefore make our earnest appeal to the Executive, and ask whether it is not time to interpose the paternal authority of the Government, and abandon the policy which is beggaring the People.

Amid all the distress of our condition we have been gratified by a view of the generous and forbearing spirit which has almost invariably marked the conduct of the creditor towards the debtor. A general disposition has been manifested to indulge the debtor with ample time for the arrangement of his business and collection of his debts, and we would respectfully suggest the example for the imitation of the Government. The embarrassment and distress of the merchants would be materially relieved by the suspending of suits upon unpaid bonds, until a future day, when the wisdom of Congress may grant some measure of relief.

Feeling as we do that we have reached a crisis which requires the exercise of all the wisdom and energy of the country, to heal the wounds which have been inflicted upon its Commerce and Productive Industry, we would respectfully and earnestly urge upon the Executive the propriety of calling an extra session of Congress to deliberate upon the unprecedented and alarming embarrassments in which we are involved. The members, coming directly from their constituents, will have the opportunity of knowing and appreciating the extent of the distress which exists, and are convinced that their collected opinions will fully sustain those which we have expressed—and their testimony indicate an amount of suffering of which we cannot believe that you, sir, have heretofore been aware.

We persuade ourselves that the representations which we have given of the actual condition of our affairs, will induce you to doubt the expediency of the policy which has been recently pursued, and we trust to your intelligence for such a change of measures as will revive the hopes and stimulate the energies of the merchants of New York.

Washington, May 3, 1837.

After the address had been read to him, the President in brief and emphatic terms assured the committee of his sympathy with the distresses of his fellow citizens of New York, and of his desire to do every thing in his power for their relief, consistent with the views of his official duty, and said that he would answer the address in the manner indicated in his note.

On the afternoon of the 4th the committee received the following reply to their address, and deemed it so explicit as to leave no opening for any further communication.

WASHINGTON, May 4, 1837.

Gentlemen.—I have bestowed on your communication the attentive consideration which is due to the opinions, wishes and interests of the respectable portion of my fellow citizens in whose behalf you act.

In the correctness of the judgment which, in the exercise of an undoubted right, you have in such general terms pronounced upon particular points in the policy of the late and present administrations, you cannot expect me to concur. My opinions on those points were distinctly announced to the American people before my election, and I have seen no reason to change them. But however much I may differ with you upon them, as well as in respect to the causes of the existing evil, you may be assured of the warm interest I shall ever feel, in whatever concerns the mercantile community, of my deep sympathy with those who are now suffering from the pressure of the times, and of my readiness to adopt any measures for their relief, consistent with my convictions of duty.

The propriety of giving to the Collectors of the Customs, instructions of the character desired, necessarily involves inquiries into the extent of the power of the Executive over the subject, the present condition of the Treasury, and its probable receipts and expenditures for the remainder of the year. These examinations have been directed and are in progress, and the result will be communicated by the Secretary of the Treasury to the Collector at New York, who will be instructed to give it publicity. A few days will be required to arrive at a safe conclusion upon some parts of the investigation, but there shall be no unnecessary delay.

The other subjects to which you have called my attention, are, first, an immediate repeal of the order requiring specie in payment on sales of public lands, issued by my predecessor, for the purpose of enforcing a strict execution of the Act of Congress, which forbids the allowance of credit on such sales; and secondly, on an extra session of Congress. I have not been able to satisfy myself that I ought, under existing circumstances, to interfere with the order referred to.

You must be aware of the obstacles to an immediate convocation of Congress, arising from the imperfect state of the representation in one branch of that body. Several of the States have not yet chosen their Representatives, and are not to do so for some months to come. Independent of that consideration, I do not see at present, sufficient reasons to justify me in requiring an earlier meeting, than that appointed by the Constitution.

I am, gentlemen, very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
M. VAN BUREN.

To Messrs. Isaac S. Hone, James W. Bryan, Benjamin Loder, Alexander B. McAlpin, John A. Underwood, Thomas Tileston, Meigs D. Benjamin, Elisha Lewis, and Simeon Draper, Jr., Committee, &c.

BOSTON MORNING POST.

THURSDAY, MAY 11, 1837.

☞ Upon our First Page will be found the Report of the Committee, appointed at a public meeting in New York, to proceed to Washington and request the President to repeal the Specie Circular, &c. After the report had been read and accepted, several Resolutions were passed, expressing a strong desire for a national bank, and pointing to the putting down of the present administration, and the party which supports it, as the only means of obtaining such a bank. The Express is dissatisfied with the proceedings of the Committee, and thinks them rather a lame affair.

Every reflecting and candid man must acknowledge the propriety of the conduct of the PRESIDENT in this matter, and every true DEMOCRAT rejoice at it—he has proved himself, by his firm and prudent conduct and prompt and upright decision, to possess those characteristics which the democracy of the nation admire, and which will always win their approbation and receive their support. The whigs are determined to fight; every friend of the administration should be at his quarters ready for the battle.

The Circular.—Had it not been for the Treasury Circular, the western banks would have continued to issue their bills in immense quantities; and these would have been collected in the deposite banks, in payment for lands, till they had accumulated to a ruinous extent. If the government had then called for payment, many of the banks, if not all, would unquestionably have stopped. The government would thus have made immense losses, and the western community would also have suffered severely by these banks. The result would have been, that the government lands would, in reality, have been given away to the speculators. As it is, the Treasury order has operated as a salutary check upon the western banks, has kept them within their proper limits, and has thus not only preserved the government from loss, but all the holders of bills, and even the banks themselves. It has also served as a very beneficial check upon the speculators, and has, in this respect also, been the cause of great good. In fact, if the government at such a crisis, had not adopted some measure of this kind, it would no longer have merited the public confidence. Mr Van Buren will undoubtedly continue this wholesome order in force, until, at least, the present storm is entirely past; the shallow wisdom of New York committees to the contrary notwithstanding.

What was the case at the close of the war? The government had taken immense quantities of these bank notes. When specie payments were resumed by such of the banks as were sound, many banks became insolvent, and the government thus suffered immense losses. The wisdom and firmness of General Jackson's administration has saved us from a repetition of the same evil.

Beauties of Banking.—In May last, a Committee was raised in the House of Commons to inquire into the operation of the act, permitting the establishment of Joint Stock Banks, under certain restrictions. Fraud and trickery unparalleled in the annals of swindling, have been brought to light. The most needy adventurers have been, in several instances, the originators of Banks. In one instance, a projector was pressing in his request for a loan of £15, which, should he obtain it, and be enabled to get his prospectus printed, he had no doubt would ensure his success. He succeeded in establishing the bank. In another instance, an adventurer, absolutely without a shirt to his back, got up a bank.

The discrepancy, between the nominal and real capitals of these banks is enormous, and the inadequacy of the latter to the sphere of operations, apparent. Thus, the Hull Banking Company, with a nominal capital of £800,000, has paid up capital of but £42,200, from which must be deducted £8,842—amount of advances for which the bank has a lien on shares—and there remains only a real capital of £33,358. Yet this bank has fifteen branches.

Four hundred and fifty shares U. S. Bank were sold in New York on Tuesday at $96 per share—Worcester Rail Road at 75 1-2—Providence 84 1-2.

The Post says—"Stocks have declined a little. The difficulties in the money market have not assumed any more favorable aspect. Several failures were reported yesterday.

There is a considerable run on the city banks to day. The alarm, as it appears to us, is without proper occasion. Nothing has occurred within a day or two to throw discredit on the soundness of the banks, and the mismanagement of one institution does not argue mismanagement in the rest. Those who have participated in the alarm would do well to inquire whether there are any causes for it, such as a rational man would allow to himself, whether they could bestow the money more safely and commodiously after they have withdrawn it from the banks, and whether there is any greater danger of accident in leaving it where it is than in placing it elsewhere. If there is not, they will see that by yielding to an irrational fear they may do great disservice to the community and themselves, and by breaking up suddenly the usual course of credit may cause mischiefs which they would greatly deplore."

"Henceforth let every true hearted American, whatever be his occupation or profession, 'sleep on his matchlock, and keep his powder dry,' until we shall have placed in power men who will honestly aim at securing the real objects for which government was instituted—the liberty and happiness of the people."—Baltimore Patriot.

Whig bombast—every true hearted American had better sleep on his hay and keep his cattle well fed.

The Dry Dock Bank.—About eighty thousand dollars of the surplus revenue had been deposited here, but it is perfectly safe, the directors being personally responsible for it, more than one of whom could be selected who is individually able to bear the loss.

☞ We have had more thunder this season than any Spring before for many years. The farmers say that this is a good sign, and they anticipate a bountiful harvest in consequence. If this prove true the present will be considered "thundering good times," instead of "thundering bad times," as many call them now.

Dreadful.—The Editor of the Detroit Spectator had received a challenge to fight a duel, and accepted it, at the last accounts—and, horrible to add, has written his epitaph and published it in his own paper ! !

In a small town in the state of New Jersey, called Ellisboro, containing about 75 inhabitants, they have neither tavern, store, lawyers, physician, justice of the peace—nor any thing else to disturb the quiet of the place!

The rich Banker, Von Stiener, Deputy-Governor of the Austrian National Bank, died lately without "chick or child," leaving ten millions of florins to distant relations. The legacies amount to 500,000 florins.

New York, May 8, 1837.

Dear Sir,—Matters are gloomy and still dark in their aspect, here. Failures continue, but no very heavy ones have occurred within the last few days. Pine street has suffered most. The troubles have continued so long, and there is so little prospect of immediate relief, that croaking has become decidedly fashionable. A morbid appetite is existing in the public mind, for evil tidings. A man must have some large failure daily, to hear of and repeat, or like the opium eater, deprived of his habitual poison, he is dejected and unhappy. Nothing is talked about but the failures daily occurring—the news from England, and the monetary measures of Government. The Specie Circular is loudly denounced by some of the merchants as the great cause of their troubles, while the shrewdest and most candid attribute them to causes having an earlier existence than that much-abused document.

The Dry Dock Bank was run, on Saturday, and met the demands made on it for specie, to the amount of $100,000. The commencement of this run was caused by three Banks refusing to receive its bills on deposite. Some quarrel was existing between the Dry Dock and the other Banks which caused them to resort to the suicidal determination, to abandon that institution to its fate. A meeting of the Presidents of the other Banks held on Sunday evening, resulted in the unanimous agreement, to abstain from assisting the Dry Dock Bank in this, its utmost need. An injunction from the Chancellor was issued, to close the doors of that Bank, yet at half-past eleven, the Mayor announced that the Dry Dock Bank bills would be redeemed by all the Banks in the city. But the mischief has been done. The news has spread far and wide, that one of the New York City Banks has stopped payment. The Courier and Enquirer of this morning announced the fact in advance, and it is now on its way to Liverpool, by the Packet which sailed at 10 o'clock this morning.

A more stupid, wilful, and suicidal course could not have been taken by the other Banks, than has been in this case. The Dry Dock Bank has doubtless gone beyond its means, and is culpable therefore. But it would be able to meet all demands for specie made upon it, were it not for the opposition of all the other Banks. They have evidently indulged the wish that it might break. Perhaps on account of its overtrading, but probably because it is a Deposite Bank. You will hear the fact trumpeted far and wide, that a pet Bank has failed, and great will be the exultation of the Federal presses. Specie has been demanded of all the other Banks, to-day, though in small sums as yet. Safety fund bills are at 5 per cent discount. New England at 2. Many persons will not take either, at any rate.

Yours, &c. H.

☞ The Georgetown Metropolitan, in describing the May ball, at Carusi's Hall, in Washington City, by the scholars of Miss English's school, says—

"It was indeed a scene calculated to make us feel the freshness of our own by gone glee. The lighted hall, effulgent in the brilliancy of a hundred lamps—the festooned ceiling and garlanded walls—the chalked floor—the music stealing over the scene, and the dancing feet—the bright smiles, the mother's joy—the father's suppressed burst of pride. The whole scene was truly beautiful; and then the procession and the coronation—the young cushion-bearer, on which was placed the crown—the graceful queen, whose brow it was to deck—the train of beauteous girls that followed her with their unenvious and admiring eyes—all struck us with that witchery which spells the heart in a luxurious oblivion of the ills of earth."

Melancholy Suicide.—On the 31st of March last, Mr Joshua Furguson, of Shapleigh, Me. put an end to his existence by hanging. He had been for a number of years subject to melancholy paroxysms. On the above morning he was about to build a fire in his own room, when his son came in and offered to build it for him; he at first refused, but consented, and said he would go to the barn and see to the cattle, where he was found by the son in about twenty minutes after, suspended by the neck, dead.

The Police Court "felt the pressure of the times" severely yesterday—probably in consequence of the receipt of President Van Buren's reply to the New York committee. Unless things speedily take a change for the better, the watchmen and officers will have to stop payment, or raise their rate of fees on the few transactions which now fall to their lot.

Fatal Accident.—The cars on the Germantown Rail Road ran over a boy near the depot, and nearly severed his head from his body.

A man was also run down by the locomotive near Fairmont, on Sunday.

Robbery.—We learn from Briggs' Bulletin that on Tuesday night the Dry Goods store of M. & P. Flynn & Co. No. 35 Hanover street, was entered by forcing open the shutters in the rear, and goods, principally silks, stolen to the amount of about $300.

☞ There has been considerable alarm among the inhabitants of Detroit, Mich. in consequence of the prevalence of the Small Pox there, but the disease has now almost disappeared entirely.

☞ To night Mrs Lewis appears at the National in Celeste's favorite character of the "French Spy." She cannot fail to do justice to it. The new pantomime of the "Farmer's Son" is vastly droll and amusing.

Celeste's Letter has produced a great sensation in N. York—the omission of Augusta's name in her enumeration of distinguished hoppers and skippers has started the dandruff from the heads of the Gothamites.

The whigs and anti-masons have a majority of one or two in the Pennsylvania State Convention, against the democrats, and so will manage things pretty much as they please.

Bones of Contention.—Some physicians say that the use of coffee prevents bones from growing, and others say that such an assertion is all nonsense.

Forestallers.—The licensed butchers of Albany, have held a meeting and agreed not to purchase any dead meats, nor live cattle, from forestallers.

Mr Geitner, a gentleman highly esteemed for his musical talents and private worth, will give a Concert on Saturday evening next.

☞ The Louisville Advertiser shows up Judge Brackenridge in his true colors—but he is too poor a sheep for one to trouble himself about.

The Hens in Rockville, Md., since the pressure has commenced, have increased their discounts, and now lay three eggs a day!

London Quarterly, Foreign, Edinburgh, and London and Westminster Reviews are at Otis, Broaders, & Co's, and Weeks, Jordan, & Co's.

☞ An attempt was made to get up a penny riot at the Tremont theatre last night, but, like most things which emanate from the same source, it was an abortion.

☞ We have received Mr Frothingham's excellent discourse on the Times, and shall notice it more fully in a day or two.

Mr James Dorr, a native of Hallowell, Me. was drowned at Little Falls, New York, on the 4th inst.

☞ The value of the property destroyed at Detroit by the late fire there, is estimated at $200,000.

LATER FROM ENGLAND.

From the New York Evening Post, Tuesday, 2 o'clock P. M.

We have just received our papers,—Liverpool to the 8th, and London to the 7th of April, both inclusive.

They announce no improvement in the money market, and a further decline in the price of Cotton.

The London Times of April 7th, says that "there is no material abatement of the uneasy feeling in the money market. New applications have been made to-day to the Bank for assistance. It is understood that the Directors have assented to a certain extent to these applications, so as to cover the immediate difficulty, but that the way is not quite so clear as to those which are to follow. The provision for these evils depends on the remittances from New York, daily expected."

A subsequent article in the same paper mentions that the the New York packet of March 1st had arrived at Liverpool.

London, April 7th.—The English stock-market remained firm at former quotations; but very little business was done. Consols closed at 90 3-8 to 1-2 for money and the present account; and for the May account, 90 5-8. Exchequer bills continue at 37s. to 39s. premium. India Bonds experienced a further improvement, leaving off at 36s. to 38s. premium.

London, 5th April—Two o'clock.—"The Commercial Money Market is tranquil; and we have nothing unfavorable to report. Money in the Stock Excange can be obtained, for short periods, at 2 1-2 per cent. per annum.

"Consols have not varied; they are, for this Account, 90 3-8 to 1-2; and for the May Account, 90 5-8 Sellers.

"Spanish Active Bonds are 23 to 1-4. Nothing doing."

"Four o'clock.—Consols for the Account closed at 90 5-8 1-2."

T. A. Curtis, Esq., has been chosen Governor of the Bank of England, in the room of James Patteson, Esq., who retires by rotation.

Mr Stevenson, our Minister, transacted business at the foreign office, on the 4th of April.

The House of Commons met on the 4th of April for the first time after the recess.

Mr Ewart brought forward his motion in Parliament on the subject of primogeniture, but was opposed by the Attorney General.

In the House of Commons, on the 6th April, after the transaction of private business, Mr M. Philips postponed till a future day (not fixed) his motion for the repeal of the duty on raw cotton.

Letters from Canton state, that the difficulties between the Planters and the Hong merchants had been arranged, and a considerable quantity of the finer teas shipped for Europe, at unfavorable prices, however, to the importer.

A Hong merchant had stopped payment, but it was thought would resume again.

Money continued very scarce; the exchange was 4s. 11d. to 5s., and American Bills were offering at 5s. 2d. Freight for London and Liverpool was £5 per ton.

The French Ministry.—A Paris article of April 4th, gives the following as a correct list of the French Cabinet, as re-constructed on the night previous:—

Count Mole, President of the Council, and Minister for Foreign Affairs. Marshal Soult, Minister of War. M. Humann, Finance. Count Montalivet, Interior. M. Barthe, Justice. M. Villemain, Public Instruction. M. Martin (du Nord,) Commerce. Admiral Rosamel, Marine.

Count Mole presented this list to the King, who approved of it, but said the members who composed it must first understand each other before he concurred in their appointment. They met on the 4th, and it is said that Soult, Humann and Villemain, urged that all the political measures before the chamber should be withdrawn, which being impossible, this re-construction of the cabinet cannot go into effect.

Liverpool Cotton Market, April 7.—Our market is yet without improvement or melioration in money matters, consequently the business doing has been very limited, and at easier prices, say about ¼d per lb on our quotations of Friday last. Speculators have taken 1000, and exporters 850 bales of American. The sales to-day were about 2000 bags of all kinds. One vessel from New York (sailed 1st ult.) arrived, but not reported. The import this week is 6,460 bags, and the sales reach 11,920 bags.

From the Cincinnati Gazette, May 2.

The Balloon Ascent of Yesterday.—Mr Clayton made yesterday a most adventurous experiment. His balloon did not fill with gas sufficient to ascend at the appointed hour. The day was beautiful, the concourse of witnesses very great. Finding that he could not ascend in the car, he made him a seat of cords by tieing them all together, and with nothing but the balloon he rose and floated up some twenty feet so as to pass the fence of the enclosure, when he found further ascent impracticable. He descended and deliberately cast off all the uninflated part of the balloon, leaving an open space at the bottom, more than ten feet in diameter. He then seated himself on the cords, and ascended in the most easy and graceful manner, waving his hat to the crowd. He hovered over the city a few minutes, floating south west, when his course changed, and was directed southeast. He appeared perfectly self-possessed, and there is reason to suppose he understands his business. It was the most beautiful, and the most thrilling ascent he has yet made in Cincinnati.

Sound Steamboats.—The arrangements of the daily line of steamers between Providence and New York, are for this month substantially the same as in April. The Rhode Island leaves Providence Mondays and Thursdays, and New York Tuesdays and Fridays, the Massachusetts leaves Providence Tuesdays and Fridays, and New York Wednesdays and Saturdays; the Providence leaves Providence Wednesdays and Saturdays, and New York Mondays and Thursdays. These boats are all of the largest class and in the best possible condition. It is probable that when the repairs of the President are completed, she will take the place of the Providence.

Anecdote.—It is related of George II. that not having a remarkable taste for poetical composition, he was rather annoyed at the share of public attention occupied by Pope. "Bope ! Bope ! (exclaimed his majesty, in his German English, when some one was talking more about the bard than was agreeable,) Bope ! I hear noting but dis Bope. Vy does he write boetry ? I vish he vould write brose!"

Fire.—The fire about 9 o'clock last evening was in Blackstone, near Hanover street—it caught in a Grocery occupied by Charles Partridge and soon communicated to the adjoining buildings, which being of wood, seemed for a time to baffle the exertions of the Fire Department. The store and building in the rear were destroyed—but a small part of the stock was saved.

☞ The fire about 11 o'clock, we understand, was a Bleaching establishment, in the vicinity of Milk Row.

The ship Tuscarora, at New London 6th inst, from the Indian Ocean, fell in with the wreck of schr Soldan, on the 4th, full of water, and took from her a mainsail, boom, &c. The schr Eliza sailed from New London on the 6t in search of her.

The schr Gen Wayne, Vose, fourteen days from Thomaston for New Orleans, put into Norfolk 6th inst, in distress, having lost her mate, Oliver Blackington, overboard, and the greater part of her sails, rigging, &c.

COOKE'S EXTENSIVE EQUESTRIAN ESTABLISHMENT, AND SPLENDID ARENA,

WILL OPEN, for a short season, on MONDAY, May 15, 1837, and every evening during the week, at ½ past 6 o'clock. Performances commence precisely at ½ past 7. The whole of the entertainments will form an assemblage of talent and splendor not to be surpassed by any other Equestrian Establishment—the performances will be produced with the utmost grandeur and peculiarity of effect, embodying in the same evening the most unequalled Scenes in the Circle, and Acrobat Evolutions of Manly agility. Extraordinary Horsemanship by Messrs James Cooke and Woolford, Principal Equestrians, who will appear in some choice Scenic Arts—together with the full display of the abilities of the beautiful Stud of Horses and wonderful group of Burmese Ponies, with the astonishing performance of the infant Equestrian Prodigies, and a succession of novelties, which constitute one of the most varied, animated and interesting spectacles ever presented to an American public.

The performances will commence with a splendid Equestrian Cavalcade, entitled the Amazons and Warrior Chiefs—Master George Cooke will go through difficult exercises on his little vaulting steed—Mr Woolford will introduce the Persian steed, "Regeo Pak," in an equestrian sketch called the Omrah's Charger, or Horse of 5000—Mr James Cooke's graceful horsemanship, representing the games of Zephyr and Cupid—Novel Gymnastic feats by the Polish brothers—Mr Cooke's grandchildren will perform a new scene in the Arena, entitled Gulliver and the Lilliputians—La belle Rosiere on a fleet courser, by Mrs Cole—at this period of the performance, an interval of ten minutes.

The Second Part of the Entertainments will commence with Mr W. Cook's double leaping over and through various objects, concluding his surprising performance by jumping over twelve horses—Mr A. Cooke will perform his light riding and leaping act—Mr Wells will represent on an elevated perpendicular the Antipodean, or world upside down—The beautiful twin ponies, Hyder and Fatima, the greatest curiosities in America, will evince surprising docility and training—Mr James Cooke will give on a flying steed the Carnival of Venice. The above entertainments will conclude with a magnificent spectacle, under the title of Alexander the Great.

Clowns, Messrs Williams and Wells.

Full particulars will be given in the bills of the opening night.

Price of Admission—Boxes $1, Pit 50 cts. Children under 10 years of age, half price. Doors open at 6½, and the performances commence at 7½.

Be it enacted &c. as follows :—

SEC. 1. If any person is imprisoned, restrained of his liberty, or held in duress, unless it be in the custody of some public officer of the law, by force of a lawful warrant or other process, civil or criminal, issued by a court of competent jurisdiction, he shall be entitled, as of right, to the writ of personal replevin, and to be thereby delivered in the manner hereinafter provided.

SEC. 2. The writ shall be issued from and returnable to the court of common pleas, for the county in which the plaintiff is confined, and shall be issued fourteen days at least before the return day thereof.

SEC. 3. It shall be directed to the sheriff of the county, or his deputy or to any of the coroners thereof and shall be served by either, to whom it shall be delivered, without delay.

SEC. 4. The said writ shall be in the form following, viz: COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS.

(L. S.) ——— ss. To the sheriff of our county of —— or his deputy (or either of the coroners thereof.) Greeting.

We command you that, justly and without delay, you cause to be replevied C. D. who (as it is said) is taken and detained at ———, within our said county, by the duress of G. H., that he the said C. D. may appear at our court of common pleas, next to be holden at ———, within our county aforesaid, then and there in our said court to demand right and justice against the said G. H. for the duress and imprisonment aforesaid, and to prosecute his replevin as the law directs :

Provided the said C. D. shall, before his deliverance, give bond to the said G. H. in such sum as you shall judge reasonable, and with two sureties at the least, having sufficient within your county, with condition to appear at our said court to prosecute his replevin against the said G. H., and to have his body there ready to be re-delivered, if thereto ordered by the court; and to pay all such damages and costs as shall be then and there awarded against him. Then, and not otherwise, are you to deliver him. And if the said C. D. be by you delivered at any day before the sitting of our said court, you are to summon the said G. H. by serving him with an attested copy of this writ, that he may appear at our said court to answer to the said C. D.

Witness, L. S. Esq. at B. the ———day of ——, in the year ——. A. B. clerk.

SEC. 5. No person shall be delivered from his imprisonment or restraint, by force of such writ, until he shall give bond in the manner expressed in the preceding section; and the bond shall be returned with the writ, in like manner as a bail bond is returned, and shall be left in the clerk's office, to be delivered to the defendant when he shall demand it.

SEC. 6. The officer, who serves the writ, shall be answerable for the insufficiency of the sureties in such bond, in like manner as he is answerable for taking insufficient bail in a civil action.

SEC. 7. If the plaintiff shall maintain his action, and shall make it appear that he was unlawfully imprisoned or restrained, he shall be discharged, and shall recover his costs of suit against the defendant, as well as damages for the said imprisonment and detention.

SEC. 8. If the plaintiff shall not maintain his action, the defendant shall have judgment for his costs of suit, and also for such damages, if any, as he shall have sustained by reason of the replevin.

SEC. 9. If it shall appear that the defendant is bail for the plaintiff, or is entitled to the custody of the plaintiff, as his child, ward, servant, apprentice or otherwise, he shall have judgment for a re-delivery of the body of the plaintiff to be held and disposed of according to law.

SEC. 10. If it shall appear, from the return of the writ of personal replevin, that the defendant has secreted or conveyed away the plaintiff's body, so that the officer cannot deliver him, the court shall, on motion, issue a capias to take the defendant's body, and him safely keep, so that he may be had at the then next term of the court, to traverse the return of the said writ of personal replevin; but the defendant may give, and the officer serving the same shall receive, bail, as in cviil cases, for his appearance as aforesaid, in such sum as the officer may judge reasonable.

SEC. 11. At the term, at which the capias is returned, the defendant may deny, by plea, the return on the writ of replevin, and if it shall appear, on the trial thereof, that he is not guilty of secreting or conveying away the plaintiff, as is set forth in the return, he shall be discharged and recover his costs.

SEC. 12. If the defendant shall not traverse the said return as aforesaid, or if, upon the said traverse, the issue, on trial, shall be found against him, then an alias writ of capias shall be issued against him, and he shall thereupon be committed to the common jail, there to remain in close custody until he shall produce the body of the plaintiff, or prove him to be dead; and if the defendant shall suggest such death at any time after committal as aforesaid, then the court shall impannel a jury to try the fact, at the expense of the defendant; and if the death be proved, the defendant shall be discharged.

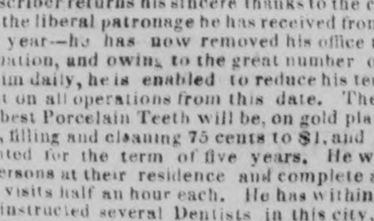

SEC. 13. If, at any time after such return of secretion and conveying away as aforesaid, the defendant shall produce the body of the plaintiff in the court to which the writ of personal replevin was returned, or in which the suit is pending, the court shall deliver the plaintiff from restraint, upon his giving bond agreeably to the condition of the writ of personal replevin: and for want of such bond, the plaintiff shall be committed to abide the judgment on the replevin, and, in either case, the suit shall be proceeded in, as if the plaintiff had been delivered on the writ of personal replevin.

SEC. 14. Either party may appeal from any judgment upon either of the matters aforesaid to the Supreme Judicial Court, as in common civil actions—and in case of an appeal from the judgments which may be rendered under the writs capias aforesaid, the whole case shall be carried up to the Supreme Judicial Court, and be there disposed of, as it ought to have been in the Court of Common Pleas, if there had been no appeal.

SEC. 15. The writ of personal replevin may be sued out by any person for and in behalf of the plaintiff, and may be prosecuted to final judgment, without any express power, for that purpose: provided, that the person so appearing for the plaintiff, shall, at any time during the pendency of the suit, when required by the court, give security in such manner as the court shall direct, for the payment of all damages and costs that shall be awarded against the plaintiff.

SEC. 16. If the name of the defendant, or the person to be delivered be unknown or uncertain, then in any writ, proceeding, or process under this act, they may respectively be described, and proceeded with, as is prescribed in the sixth and seventh sections of the one hundred and eleventh chapter of the Revised Statutes in the writ of habeas corpus.

SEC. 17. The thirty-eight section of the one hundred and eleventh chapter of the Revised Statutes, is hereby repealed. [Approved by the Governor, April 19, 1837.

INCORRUPTIBLE PORCELAIN TEETH.—The subscriber returns his sincere thanks to the citizens of Boston for the liberal patronage he has received from them during the last year—he has now removed his office to a more central situation, and owing to the great number of teeth inserted by him daily, he is enabled to reduce his terms at least 50 per cent on all operations from this date. The average price for the best Porcelain Teeth will be, on gold plate $3, pivot $1 to 1 50, filling and cleaning 75 cents to $1, and all operations warranted for the term of five years. He will continue to visit persons at their residence and complete any operations in two visits half an hour each. He has within the last three years instructed several Dentists in this city, who are now practising with great success.

The hours of business will be from 9 A. M. to 1 P. M. and from 3 until 9 P. M. CHARLES J. HOUPT,

NAVY COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE, March 18th, 1837.

LIVE OAK TIMBER.—Sealed proposals will be received at this office until 3 o'clock, P. M. of the first day of July next, for the supply of Live Oak Timber, as follows:

No 1. For the frame timber, beam and keelson pieces, and for the promiscuous timber which may be directed, for one ship of the line, one frigate, two sloops of war, (one of each class) and one smaller vessel; to be delivered at the Navy Yard near Portsmouth, N. H.

No 2. For the frame timber, beam and keelson pieces, and for the promiscuous timber, which may be directed, for one ship of the line, one frigate and one steamer; to be delivered at the Navy Yard at Charlestown, Massachusetts.

No 3 For the frame timber, beam and keelson pieces, and for the promiscuous timber which may be directed, for one ship of the line, one sloop of war, large class, one small vessel, and one steamer; to be delivered at the Navy Yard, Charlestown, Mass.

No 4. For the frame timber, beam and keelson pieces, and for the promiscuous timber which may be directed, for one ship of the line, one frigate and one steamer; to be delivered at the Navy Yard, Brooklyn, New York.

No 5. For the frame timber, beam and keelson pieces, and for the promiscuous timber which may be directed; for one ship of the line, one sloop of war, large class, and one steamer; to be delivered at the Navy Yard, Brooklyn, New York.

No 6. For the frame timber, beam and keelson pieces, and for the promiscuous timber, which may be directed, for two sloops of war, small class, and two steamers; to be delivered at the Navy Yard at Philadelphia.

The quantity and dimensions of the promiscuous timber for each vessel, of each class, is as follows:—

For each ship of the line 8000 cubic feet; which must be sided 15 inches, and be from 12 to 20 feet in length, six of the longest pieces to side 19 inches.

For each sloop of war, 1,500 cubic feet, which must be sided 12 inches, and be from 12 to 17 feet long; six of the longest pieces to side 16 inches.

For each steamer, 1,500 cubic feet, which must be sided 15 inches, and be from 12 to 18 feet long; six of the longest pieces to side 16 inches.

For each small vessel, 800 cubic feet, which must be sided 8 inches, and be from 10 to 16 feet long, six of the longest pieces to side 12½ inches.

A part of the promiscuous timber may be got to larger dimensions, provided the pieces will answer for replacing defective hawse pieces, transoms, breast hooks, or other valuable pieces.

Separate offers must be made for each of the preceding numbers, and each offer must embrace all the timber that is called for by the number to which it refers; the prices asked per cubic foot must be stated separately for each and every class of vessels embraced in the offer, and for the promiscuous timber of each class separately from the other; all of which other is considered moulded timber.

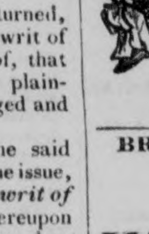

At least one-fourth of the whole quantity of timber embraced in each offer, comprising a fair proportion of the most valuable pieces, must be delivered on or before the last of March, 1839; one-half of the remainder on or before the last of March, 1840, and the whole quantity on or before the last of March, 1841; and if the above proportions shall not be delivered at the respective times above specified, the Commissioners of the Navy reserve to themselves the right of cancelling any contract in the execution of which such failure may occur, and of entering into new contracts, holding the original contractors and their surities liable for any excess of cost and other damages, which may be thus incurred.

The said live oak timber must have grown within twenty-five miles of the seaboard, (which must be proven to the satisfaction of the respective Commandants,) must be got out by the moulds and written directions, and specifications of dimensions, &c, which will be furnished to the contractors for their government, and must be free from all injuries and defects which may impair the good quality of the said timber for the purposes for which it is required by contract, and be in all respects satisfactory to the Commandants of the respective navy yards where it is delivered.

Bonds, with two good and responsible sureties (whose names must be forwarded with the offers) in the amount of one-third the estimated value of the timber to be furnished under the respective contracts, will be required; and, as collateral security for the faithful compliance with the terms, stipulations, and conditions of the said contracts, ten per centum will be reserved from the actual amount of each payment which may be made from time to time, within thirty days after bills shall be duly approved and presented to the Navy Agent, until the said contracts are completed and closed; which reservations, respectively, will be forfeited to the use and benefit of the United States, in the event of failures to deliver the timber within the respective periods prescribed.

The moulds will be furnished to the contractors at one of the Navy Yards, Brooklyn, Gosport, or Philadelphia.

LONDON PERFUMERY.—The following articles are well known :—

ATKINSON'S OLD BROWN WINDSOR SOAP, made by a new process, is equal, if not superior, to the most fashionable Soap, sold at double the price.

ATKINSON'S ALMOND SOAP, made from the purest Almond Oil, the mildest Soap, most fragrant in its perfume, and greatest beautifier to the skin hitherto known.

Also, his OTTO OF ROSE. CAMPHOR for chapped hands.

AMBROSIAL SOAP. It is made from the purest vegetable oil, and is equally mild as the Almond, only differing from it in perfume and color, the latter being a light brown, and the perfume a combination of those most generally approved.

ATKINSON'S BEARS' GREASE, warranted genuine as imported. This article, exclusive of its well known regenerating properties, is a very elegant substitute for Oils, Pomatums, and Extracts, for dressing the hair.

CREAM OF ALMONDS. For allaying all smarting pain, which the skin is subject to from the change of heat and cold, or any other cause, and is much preferable to Cold Cream.

ATKINSON'S VEGETABLE DYE, for changing gray or red hair on the head or whiskers, to a permanent brown or black.

CAUTION.—Every article in perfumery of James Atkinson's manufactory, has his name and address distinct on the label, and also a small address stamp, printed in colors, similar to a patent medicine stamp.

ALLA AD DEEN MAHOMED'S DYE, for changing the hair on the head, eyebrows, or whiskers, to a permanent brown or black, by one application, without staining the skin or the finest linen.

A fresh supply of the above just received by J. & E. Atkinson's Agent, at the Music Saloon, and London Importing Warehouse, No 34 and 36 Cornhill, late Market street.

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

AN account of that most excellent Medicine prepared at Dr Loveman's Gilead House. Price 50 cents per bottle. Sold by appointment in Boston, at D. S. ROWLAND'S, 188 Washington street, Boston.

"To administer to a mind diseased, pluck from the Memory a rooted Sorrow,
"Raze out the written troubles of the Brain, and with some sweet oblivious Antidote,
"Cleanse the foul Bosom of that perilous stuff which weighs upon the Heart."

Dr. LOVEMAN'S Balm of Gilead is universally acknowledged to be peculiarly efficacious in all inward wastings, loss of appetite, indigestion, depression of spirits, trembling or shaking of the hands or limbs, shortness of breath, and consumptive habits. It thins the blood, eases the most violent pain in the head and stomach, and promotes gentle perspiration. By the Medical Faculty this medicine is much admired being pleasant to the taste and smell, gently astringing the fibres of the stomach, and giving that proper tensity which a good digestion requires.

Dr Loveman's Balm of Gilead is recommended to the weak, the relaxed, and debilitated, as an agreeable and speedy restorative; and considered as a cordial, is essential to the comfort of ladies of fashion, being a preventive against cold, when taken before going out to parties, balls, routs or the play. It will enliven the spirits and invigorate the mind and body, and if taken after fatigue, it will with a few hours sleep, take away all languor consequent on broken rest, and give relief from every unpleasant sensation.

It is a most valuable remedy for such diseases as are attended with the following symptoms, namely—a great straitness of the breast, with difficulty of breathing—violent palpitations of the heart, sudden flasces of heat in various parts of the body—at other times a sense of cold, as if water was poured on them—flying pains in the arms and limbs, back and belly, resembling those occasioned by the gravel—the pulse very variable, sometimes uncommonly slow, at other times very quick—yawning, the hiccough, frequent sighing, and a sense of suffocation, as from a ball or lump in the throat—alternate fits of crying and convulsive laughing—the sleep unsound, and seldom refreshing, and the patient often troubled with horrid dreams. Much has been said by interested individuals against Medicines that are advertised, but there is a very important observation to be made respecting Dr Loveman's Balm of Gilead, that unless its operation was gentle, safe and efficacious, it could not have obtained the unexampled demand it has acquired.

NERVOUS DEBILITY

"Without Health we can enjoy no Fortune ;
Honors, Riches, and all other advantages are useless."
HIPPOCRATES.

This Cordial has been uncommonly successful with young people who have the appearance and air of old age, who are pale, effeminate, benumbed, stupid, and even imbecile; whose bodies are become bent, whose legs are no longer able to carry them, who have an utter distaste for every thing, and are totally incapacitated. Where the stomach is frequently disordered, the body is weakened; paleness, bodily decay and emaciation succeed, and the eyes sink into the head. The virtues of Dr Loveman's Balm of Gilead are demonstrated, in eradicating the worst and most dangerous symptoms of nervous debility, and nothing has tended so much to establish the fame of this medicine, as its certain success in those complaints which strike their roots so deep in the constitution, and are so fatal to the happiness of mankind.

Dr Loveman's Balm of Gilead has risen in repute with every trial of its efficacy. Some, perhaps, unacquainted with its virtues, not having perused the Guide to Health, may be induced to ask what is the Balm of Gilead good for? What complaint doth it cure?—To answer this it will be necessary to "Hold the Mirror up to Nature."

Let those who are afflicted in the following manner reflect on the cause that produced such havoc upon the "wholesome appetites and powers of life:"—disordered stomach, dry cough, weakness in the voice hoarseness, shortness of breath upon the least exercise, and relaxation of the whole system. Those afflicted with paleness, languor of the eyes, weakness of sight or memory, should take time to consider Linnæus's advice, that "youth is the important period for forming a robust constitution," and that "nothing is to be dreaded so much as premature excess." The foundation of a happy old age is a good constitution in youth; temperance and moderation at that age are passports to happy grey hairs.

For such as have violated these precepts, then, this healing balm is suitable—complaints included in the vague appellation of Nervous and Consumptive, are those for which it is peculiarly adapted.

In offering this medicine to the public, I can say with confidence that they will find great benefit by using it in all diseases recommended, as I am fully acquainted with the medical qualities, as they have been discovered by myself, and are extracted from vegetables, and I can truly say, there is no earthly danger in using the medicine by any person, no matter how they may be afflicted. This medicine has been used by a large number of persons, and have been cured of diseases of a long standing, when all other medicines have failed. n23

THE TRUTH WILL PREVAIL.
CERTAIN DISEASES CURED.
Dr. Goodwill's Gonorrhœa and Gleet Detergent.

THE only infallible remedy ever discovered for Gonorrhœ and Gleets is now become too well known and established, in all parts of the Union, to require comment. Its universal success, which in no instance has ever failed, has warranted it to cure in forty-eight hours the most desperate and inflammatory cases of Gonorrhœa, Gleets, and whites in all their stages, strictures, Seminal Weaknesses, pains in the loins, irritation of the Uretura from Gravel, as well as chronic affections of the urinary bladder and kidneys, if ever so violent or of long standing. This safe and only infallible remedy is an agreeable liquid, and its effects long on the constitution, (being composed of Sarsaparilla and the choicest of preparations) that while it restores the system, its superiority over every other kind of medicine only requires a limited trial to know its efficacy. Every person that has made use of this medicine has been his own physician, and secrecy has been secured—having proved effectual in almost two thousand cases, and never to our knowledge failed in any instance. The vast and increasing sale from the recommendations of the highest medical characters, as well as those who have experienced its salubrious and beneficial offects, prove its great success and entire superiority over every other medicine, in being the most effectual remedy ever discovered for the cure of the above diseases, giving—muscular strength, energy and vigorous health to the whole frame. The most delicate females may take it with perfect safety. Dr Goodwill's Detergent is a safe, certain and speedy cure for the above diseases, from the most recent to the most protracted cases. It is taken without any risk, inconvenience, or suspension from business. See that your case is eradicated, not patched up by quack doctors or quack medicines. Those who make use of one single bottle may be convinced of the easy method of being cured. The "motto" of this medicine, "let every person be their own physician with secrecy." It will prevent the occurrence of the disease in persons, male or female, of the most fastidious delicacy, and is a real blessing to human kind. It ought always to be on hand.

N. B. A word to the wise.—Take no medicine but the above, and keep away from the quack Doctors, whose names appear in every public print, and then you take no mercury and save your constitution.

"We have much pleasure in bearing testimony to this safe and efficacious Medicine: we do this on grounds of strict impartiality, knowing several friends who have been cured by it. A fact that we know.

For sale by appointment at 188 Washington street, opposite the Marlboro' Hotel. A. Underhill, 38 Beekman st. New York. Jones & Hutchingson, corner of 7th and Chesnut sts, Philadelphia. Price 50 cents per bottle. n23

TO THE PUBLIC.—Anacreon, the prince of ancien poets, the lover and the eulogist of the ladies, never forgot, in his odes, to mention of the teeth of pearl.

Ovid never for one moment lost sight of the "balmy breath" of his ladies, and his earnest recommendation to both sexes was ever to "keep your teeth clean, and your breath sweet." The ancients had the means of doing so. Anacreon's beauties were as noted for their flowing zones and their eyes of fire, as for their teeth of pearl and their breath of balm.

Ovid, who has taught us how to love and be loved, laid more stress upon the teeth and breath, than any other point—and verily these precepts are worthy of our practice.

How many matches have been broken off—how many amantes separated—how much misery caused by the single fault of a bad breath.

I once heard a lady sing, and most divinely. Her voice was clear, full and melodious, her tones superb, but the air beyond endurance.

Who does not wish to have this defect remedied? What lady does not wish to be blessed with the "teeth of pearl and the balmy breath," so noted by the divine Anacreon? What gentleman does not wish to be in every wish agreeable to the ladies?

THE REMEDY IS IN YOUR OWN HANDS—Dr Palmer's Diman Pearl Tooth Powder and Brushes is offered as a remedy whose effects are as certain as they are delightful.—This excellent tooth powder is not the invention of the present day. It has not been confined to modern times, and Dr Palmer has had the happiness of restoring, in its purity, the long lost article which was in such vogue in the days of yore. It is offered with the fullest confidence as to its merits, to which thousands who have used it can testify, and should any lady or gentleman who, by misfortune, have been afflicted with noisome breath or bad teeth, make one trial of its virtues, and not feel perfectly satisfied of its efficacy, then "Othello's occupation 's gone."

The Diman Pearl Tooth Powder and Brushes is no modern quackery. It requires no puffing, no paragraphing, te render it uses as general as its effects are delightful. The ingredients are of a nature which cannot injure, and must beautify the teeth and sweeten the breath. The certificates of many of the ablest medical practitioners of this country will testify to the fact, and the innumerable recommendatory letters, from ladies and gentlemen who have used it are sufficient guarantees for its worth.

ALBANY AND TROY PACKETS.—REGULAR LINE.

Schooner	VISSCHER,	Owen Bearse, master.
"	GRECIAN,	A. Watson, "
"	BENJ. BIGELOW,	F. Wells, "
"	VICTOR,	John Cammett, "
"	DEBORAH,	D. A. Allen, "
"	STRANGER.	Nelson Bearse, "
"	NIAGARA,	Andrew Lovell, "
"	ALBANY,	Edwin Scudder, "

These vessels are all of the first class, with experienced masters, who are likewise first rate pilots.

The owners of this line, to avoid detention by head winds and shoal water, in the narrow and shoal part of the river near Albany, have purchased (to be used by this line) the Steam Boat "WADSWORTH," as a tow boat and lighter, which, with the lighter Grampus, of ninety tons, built the last season expressly for this line, they think will prevent the delay hitherto experienced at that place, and insure punctuality and dispatch. Merchandise by this line, destined to places on the northern, western or Ohio Canals, northern and western Lakes, &c. &c. &c. will be forwarded by the Agents without delay.

These packets will sail regularly on Wednesday and Saturday of each week, from opposite No 15 Long whf, north side, Boston, and from the piers at Albany and Troy.

The patronage of the public is respectfully solicited.

Agents at Boston—BANGS & ALLCOTT, 15 Long wharf.
Agents at Albany—GAY & WILLARD, 104 Pier, foot of State st. Agents at Troy—GAY & WILLARD, 189 River street. eptf mh3

400 DOLLARS PREMIUM.—Premiums of $200 each will be paid by the Post Office Department, for the best models of Mail Wagons or Coaches, embracing the following objects, viz:—

1. A vehicle made close, strong, and water-proof, the inside to be devoted exclusively to the conveyance of the United States mail on the great Mail routes into which the whole great mail passing from one distributing office to another may be put and locked up, with a box readily accessible to the driver, also close, strong, and water-proof, into which the way mails may be put and locked up. Seats to be made on the outside, sufficient to contain four grown persons and no more. A preference will be given to one so constructed that nothing else but a few pounds of baggage can be carried on it.

2. A vehicle embracing—

An apartment sufficient to contain six passengers, and no more.

A separate apartment for the United States mail, made close, strong, and water-proof, into which the great mail may be put and locked up.

A box readily accessible to the driver, made close, strong, and water-proof, into which the way mail may be put and locked up.

The coach must be so constructed as not to admit of carrying any thing on the top or elsewhere, other than the mails and six passengers and their ordinary baggage.

The models need be of a sufficient size only to exhibit clearly the manner in which they are constructed, and illustrate the convenience, strength and capacity of vehicles constructed on the same plan.

The models must all be delivered at the Post Office Department by the 20th day of May next, and the premium will be awarded on the 1st day of June.

Whoever presents the best models will be recommended to the patronage of the contractors whose bids for carrying the mails in carriages of that description may be accepted.
